

PRACTICAL EDUCATION FOR EXECUTIVES S.C.

MIND MAPS

More than the amount of knowledge we might have is the correct usage of that which we possess.

What does the course consist of?

The amounts invested by companies in training represent one of their highest costs. It has been proven that the information learned is forgotten in a very short time. In addition, the information registered is a very low percentage in regard to the amount of information received.

When applying mind maps to take notes, retention increases by 90%. Likewise, the ability to remember the received information through this technique, which follows the brain's natural structure, increases by 100%.

Course objectives

To develop reading comprehension at a higher speed compared to the participant's current reading speed.

- 1.- To learn to read fast
- 2.- To improve learning
- 3.- To apply participants' knowledge in their jobs
- 4.- To generate a personal vision based on the knowledge of the theme.

Who is it directed to?

- ◆ Businessmen
